Curator

The Municipality of Kingborough is situated 10 km south of Hobart, the capital city of Tasmania. Kingborough has one of the longest stretches of picturesque coastline in Tasmania and offers a relaxed lifestyle with many beautiful beaches, bushland and the spectacular Bruny Island. The population is approximately 35,000 and the Municipality has one of the highest growth rates in the State.

We are seeking applications from suitably experienced, enthusiastic and motivated individuals for the position of Curator. The position is part of a team responsible for the construction and maintenance of Council's sporting fields and ovals, including the new Twin Ovals complex at Kingston.

To be considered for the role, you should have demonstrated experience in the preparation, presentation and ongoing maintenance of turf cricket wickets to facilitate first class cricket matches. A relevant vocational qualification in horticulture is also desirable. You will require excellent communication skills, flexibility to work both on weekends and after-hours and a strong commitment to working in a turf environment.

Benefits Package: A base salary within the range of $49,128 to $52,372 per annum will be negotiated depending on skills, qualifications and experience. An additional 15% loading may also be offered as part of a flexible workplace arrangement. Council also provides a 12.5% superannuation contribution.

How to apply: For further information on this position, please contact Brett Direen, Manager Works on 62 118100. A copy of the position description for this vacancy and information detailing requirements for applications are available on Council's website www.kingborough.tas.gov.au or from Jessica Blake on 6211 8265. All applications must include a document addressing the selection criteria and a current resume.

Applications close at 4.00p.m Wednesday 15 February 2012 and should be forwarded to the Executive Manager Organisational Development, Kingborough Council, 15 Channel Highway, Kingston 7050 or by email on recruitment@kingborough.tas.gov.au
