

INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

The WA Turf Industry is seeking a dynamic and motivated person to take on this excellent opportunity to be a proactive and motivated influence within the turf production and maintenance sectors throughout Western Australia.

- leadership and coordinating role
- good autonomy
- work from home
- 30.5 hrs/week

Desirable attributes (including relevant tertiary qualifications) for this position is a passion for a sustainable and progressive turf industry, ability to work both autonomously and within a team, an ability to prioritize work within set timeframes, with good communication and above average word processing skills.

For a position description and selection criteria, visit:

www.tgaa.asn.au

Applications in writing are required by COB: Wednesday 29th February 2012.

Post: WA Turf IDO, PO Box 8492, Perth BC, WA 6849.

Email: wa@tgaa.asn.au

For more information contact:

Tony Guy, TGAA(WA) President,

M: 0417977734

E: tony.guy@allsaints.wa.edu.au

